NBPW PRESIDENT NAMES CHAIRMEN FOR NEW YEAR

The regular business meeting of the National Business and Professional Women's Club was held Monday evening with President Zada Ramsey making announcement of the committee chairmen who will serve on her board during 1951-1952, as follows: Program Coordinator, Miss Lucille Stroh; Membership,

Mrs. Maude Deisinger; Education, Mrs. Minnie Brooks; International Relations, Mrs. Ruth Davis; Legislation, Mrs. Ruth Heyl; News Service, Mrs. Helen Williams; Public Relations, Mrs. Arvilla Owens; Radio-Motion Pictures-Television, Mrs. Laddie Johnson; Music, Miss Molly Marshall; Parliamentarian, Mrs. Virginia Beck; Civilian Defense, Mrs. Maude Deisinger; Birthdays, Mrs. Helen Parrish.

A meeting of the board of directors has been called for 7:30 o'clock June 11 at the home of Mrs. Ruth Robinson, 1417 Post avenue. A full attendance is requested.

Miss Audrey Brown of Glendale, Past Los Angeles District President, will be the guest speaker at the June 15 dinner meeting, which will be held in the Union Oil Company dining room. Guests are welcome and reservations are to be made with Mesdames Geraldine Wickham or Virginia Beck by June 15, after which no cancellations will be accepted.

The equipment donated by the local club for use by the Red Cross instructors in the Home Nursing course has been placed in the Seaside Ranches Elementary School where twenty-nine persons are availing themselves of the course being offered.

Mrs. Catherine Henry of Gardena, who is Bay Section Chairman, appeared at the business meeting and gave an outline of the purpose for which Bay Section came into being. The Torrance Club will entertain the Bay Section clubs on Sunday morning, June 24th, at a breakfast to be given in the American Legion Hall. There will be three workshops: namely, Health and Safety under the direction of Miss Kathleen Head; Finance under Miss Irene Young and Program Coordination under Miss Bertha Shaw. Reservations for this breakfast are to be made with President Zada Ramsey, who requests a full attendance of the local club.

An invitation was received from the Lawndale Club to attend the installation dinner June 28 and anyone desiring to attend is to make reservation with Mrs. Ramsey.

Helen Williams, News Service Chairman.

Final Meet for Halldale PTA Board

Halldale PTA board members enjoyed luncheon Thursday at the home of Mrs. E. M. Bernardin, president.

The last board meeting of the term was held in conjunction with the luncheon, and activities planned for the rest of the school term were outlined. A clean up paper drive will be held Wednesday, June 13, at the school. Parents are asked to save newspapers and magazines for this drive.

The sixth grade will be honored with a graduating class picnic Thursday, June 14. The B-6 class is also to be honored at the outing. There will be 79 students graduating from Halldale School on June 15.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. C. C. DeVore, president-elect, presented a gift to Mrs. Bernardin, outgoing president, on behalf of the board members, in appreciation of her fine record as president of Halldale PTA during the past two years.

Fern PTA Represented at Breakfast

At the June Breakfast meeting of the Torrance Council of Parents and Teachers Friday, the Fern Avenue PTA was well represented by the presence of 18 members, with Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Henderson, principal of Fern Avenue School, and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Ellerman, vice principal, as guests.

Paul Shinoda, Freddie Hilton, Frank Gunn and Richard Bentwood, Fern Avenue pupils and members of Boy Scout Troop 721 of the First Baptist Church, led the flag salute.

Mrs. William C. Scholl and Mrs. M. L. Hartley, Fern Avenue PTA members, made the corsages for the installation and honor guests.

PTA Board Enjoys Patio Party

Members of North Torrance Elementary PTA board were honored with a patio party when Mrs. Ralph McBe, president, entertained Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry VanBellehem.

Community singing served as entertainment for the evening. Included were Messrs. and Mmes. Ralph McBe, Harry VanBellehem, William Sale, Duane Sherwood, Robert Jackson, C. E. Sewell, Donald Robinson, Walter Bronson, S. K. Odell, Jules Ross, Aron Wiehe and Verner Neher and Mrs. Gerschel Babb.

Mrs. Derouin Entertains PTA Board

Mrs. G. J. Derouin, retiring president of the Fern Avenue PTA, was a charming hostess when she entertained her executive board and committee chairmen at a delightful luncheon in the patio of her Beech avenue home.

Preceding the luncheon she presided at the last board meeting of the school year. On the agenda were final plans regarding refreshments to be provided at the party for the 8th grade class.

186th Street PTA Closes Year With Today's Meet

Fern-Sponsored Scouts Review Pack Meeting

Cub Scout Pack 728-C, sponsored by Fern Avenue PTA, held an interesting Pack meeting recently at Fern Avenue School. The meeting was opened with a pledge to the flag led by Den 2 with the assistance of Dal Derouin.

Cubmaster R. D. Wollard Jr. announced that the recent paper drive was a great success and he thanked the boys for their participation.

The Cub Scouts put on a "Circus" before an appreciative audience. All boys in the Pack took part. There was an Indian ceremony and a Wild West show. There were clowns, a fat lady, a lion tamer, a strong man, tumblers, Siamese twins and a trained horse that could waltz and count. "Harvey" the rabbit, also made his first appearance.

During the evening Cubmaster Wollard announced the three prize winners in the Scout Circus ticket sale contest. First prize, a table tennis set, was won by Barry Coleman; second prize, a flash camera, by Mike Walker and third prize a Scout knife by Ronald Brumbelow. Gerald Markdock and Freddie Accosta received honorable mention.

Welcome Wagon Hostess Entertains for Group

Welcome Wagon of Torrance recently held their first social gathering under the guidance of Doris Carl, the new hostess.

The ladies were greeted at the Chamber of Commerce building by Mr. Blaine Walker and Mr. J. H. Paget of the Better Business Men's Bureau. Mr. Walker gave some interesting statistics on the growth and the future of Torrance. Mr. Paget was pleased to know that Welcome Wagon is working in Torrance again, as he feels this organization does a fine job toward creating better relationship between the people and the merchants.

The Torrance Flower Shop presented each of the ladies with a beautiful gardenia corsage, which added to their enjoyment of the party.

A tour of the shopping section followed, and the ladies called on some of the merchants who are sponsors of Welcome Wagon.

Mr. Dominguez of Frank's Furniture Store, a most gracious host, presented each of the ladies with a nylon clothes brush. Mrs. Abramson of the National Home Appliance Store was also an enthusiastic hostess. Mrs. Avery of Howard's Jewelry
